About the book . . .

This heart-felt adventure travels with brother and sister and their thrill-seeking dog, Oliver, as they explore the old gold ghost town of Bodie, California. When the last piece of gold was mined in Bodie the town packed up and disappeared, or so everyone thought. Yet, when Oliver wanders down an old dirt road, his owners, Pippa and Tony, discover a town full of encounters with friendly and not-so friendly ghosts and old memories. This charismatic adventure is complete with the well-known vibrant illustrations of Christiane Cassan Wiese, whose artistic ability fills each page with imaginative and memorable scenes. This historic and creative tale is sure to be a family favorite.

About the authors and illustrator . . .

Christiane Cassan Wiese and Allen Johnson, Jr. once again make a dynamic team with their charming story and illustrations. Christiane is a freelance illustrator and designer whose art has graced the pages of many children's books and has even found its way to designer wallpaper. Allen has authored many successful family favorites including The Butterpop Café, A Breeze in the Willows, My Brother's Story, and Picker McClicker.
