About the book . . .

Everything you ever wanted to know about the sport of golf can be found in this entertaining little compilation of golf trivia. From the history of the game to current golf accomplishments, Karyn has researched this extremely popular game. Fun facts about golf courses, club houses, extraordinary feats and the talented pros who play the game are included in this homage to a billion dollar industry.

About the author . . .

A golfer herself, Karyn Zweifel learned some of the game's finer points from her grandfather. This Birmingham mother can appreciate the serious side of the sport as well as its lighter moments and has compiled this entertaining collection of trivia to help others to see the wide breadth of the sport that we can all enjoy on some level.
