Hey, God! What is Death? The subject of death is never easy to discuss, but this heartfelt story of a child's questions to God leaves the reader quite hopeful and uplifted.

Hey, God! Hurry! A seeking child asks God to hurry and help people understand how to live better lives, before it's too late.

Hey, God! What is America? A curious child asks what it means to be an American. His wondrous answers are revealed in this charming, inspiring, and teaching book of faith.

Hey, God! What is Communion? An innocent child wonders about the meaning of Communion, and, in a child-like way, touches on the true meaning of Easter, by revealing the limitless love God must have for all of us.

About the author . . .

Roxie Gibson loves children and communicates to them a spirit of happiness, reverence, God's compassion and Christ's love for them. Her love and devotion to her Lord and Saviour are reflected in her daily living as well as in her writing. She has written eleven other books and three musicals for performance by children.
